Me and Tim Beaver had the most wonderful time with Those Magnificent Men! Imaginative staging, creative props, witty ad-libs and chock-full of interesting facts about two forgotten British Heroes. We loved it and would have gone again the second night with other friends if I hadn't been working! Having a drink (or two!) in the bar afterwards was an added bonus! Thoroughly recommend the show, it's absolutely charming! Come back to Leicester soon!

Just come back from your Magnificent Men show at Bickerton, Cheshire ... I'm exhausted I felt like I'd flown all the way with you guys.... loved every moment of your journey, brilliant performances, a truly special story ... and certainly told from your hearts .... Thank-you for sharing it with us all :)

From opening at Dave's Leicester Comedy Festival, Upstairs at The Western 20/02/15-21/02/15:

“Very inventive fast-moving great-fun story-telling of the period (no P.C. Thanks heavens!) Characters and music in harmony brought 1919 back – witty jokes – wonderful bi-plane created in seconds. Thank you.” - Jane Savage, Leicester

“Great characterisation and a fantastic evolving set – some great ideas. A very inventive production.” - Rachel Gilmour, Leicester

From Upstairs at The Western's own comments forms:

“Great show, both funny an informative (loved the areoplane)”

“Wonderful, absolutely amazing! Really enjoyed it”

“Really fun that it was based on a real story – learnt something as well as it being entertaining”

“Really enjoyed it!”

From preview at The Rock Inn, Brighton 12/02/15:

"Great piece of work... Funny, interesting, mad, poignant, slightly anarchic... everything you could want really..." - Jeff Hemmings, Latest 7 Magazine

"I loved the show and was gripped throughout. Very funny sharp script, inventive set and crisp performances. A moving, informative and exciting journey across the Atlantic and into history. Magnificent." - Fleur Shorthouse, Hove
