

AUDIENCE COMMENTS FOR TRUMPTON COMES ALIVE!

12th December - Latest Music Bar, Brighton (World Premiere)

It made me feel all warm and fuzzy. A triumph.

Tim Bick

Fantastic fare - favourite gig of the year!

Seth Morgan

That was the best and loveliest gig I've ever been to, and I've been to a lot. I beamed in wonder from start to finish – amazing, perfect. Such a brilliant idea – wonderfully excited.

Jerry Rulf

It brought back great memories – and I never even watched it!? Five star entertainment! Glen Richardson was hilarious...

Alan Fred Pipes

Best gig of the year. It was the most beautiful evening – nail it and it would be heaven. I wanted to bring my sisters. You'll be doing a national service if you take it on tour. Tour this and you'll be pay magnets. Top cabaret and sensational musicianship skills. Would like a matinee on the bandstand for the Festival!

Poppy Manley

Total winner of a show. Best thing I've seen/heard in ages. I'd love to see some slides of the characters. Beautiful!!! Funny, moving...

Jason Pegg

Fabulous – lots of lovely memories. Well done! Brilliant work. Glen Richardson was a great host. Can't wait to see it again.

Anne Jackson

 A sure-fire Edinburgh hit!!*

Last night's Trumpton Comes Alive was a delight - Adrian Oxaal and Stephen Wrigley playing guitars, and Glen Richardson singing the Brian Cant songs and telling us all about Trumpton ('a place so white that Gyles Brandreth would be considered Jamaican'). 'Lots have things have changed since Trumpton...Nowadays, everyone doesn't have their own song.' Let's hope they do it again, and again.
